SUBJECT: YOUR FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT CASE NAVSEA-HQ
2014F000047

Dear Mr. MacFarlane:

This follows up our February 7, 2014 letter to you in which we acknowledged receipt of your December 6, 2013 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for copies of videos produced by NAVSEA or in the possession of NAVSEA that include the word "security" or "safety" in the title. On February 27, 2014, you agreed to revise your request to include only those videos produced by NAVSEA or in the possession of NAVSEA that include the word "security" or "safety" in the title, and which are related to the security or safety of the employees in Building 197.

In our correspondence to you on February 7, 2014, we provided you with a list of all videos (including CDs and DVDs) produced by NAVSEA or in the possession of NAVSEA that include the word "security" or "safety" in the title. After further review, we have determined that none of the items on the list are related to the security or safety of employees in Building 197. Accordingly, there are no videos that are responsive to your request.

If you believe that we did not conduct an adequate search, you may file an administrative appeal. Your appeal should contain an explanation as to why you believe our search was inadequate and must be received within 60 calendar days from the date of this letter. If you file an appeal, please attach a copy of your initial request and amended request, a copy of this letter, and mark the appeal letter and envelope "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Mail your appeal to the Department of the Navy, Office of the General Counsel, 1000 Navy Pentagon, Room 4E635, Washington, DC 20350-1000. Please provide a copy of your appeal letter to us at Naval Sea Systems Command, 1333 Isaac Hull Avenue SE, Washington Navy Yard, DC 20376-0001.

In light of your amended request, we granted your request for a fee waiver.

If you have any questions regarding this request, please contact Ms. Donna Hamlin by telephone at 202-781-2437 or send an email to navseafoia@navy.mil.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Donna M. Hamlin". The signature is written in a cursive, slightly slanted style.
